Dear Phelps,

Thanks for your understanding letter. I'm sorry I can't be there, particularly because it would be great to see you again. Dick Walters will do a great job for you.

Hope all is going well. Warmest personal regards,

Sincerely,

George Bush
Director

Lt. Gen. Vernon Walters
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear General Walters:

I certainly hope you will be able, on very short notice, to again meet with the V.F.W.'s National Security Committee on Sunday, March 7th at 11 A.M. The meeting will take place in the Virginia Suite of the Sheraton-Park Hotel.

The program will also include Congressmen John Ashbrook and Sonny Montgomery, and to appear either in tandem with you or before you (however you desire) Dave Phillips, head of the Association of Retired Intelligence Officers.

As I read the tea leaves, we bottomed out on the 28th of January and have started up slowly since that date with the House rejection of Otis Pike's request by a litmus test vote of high importance. Not only the V.F.W., but our country is in your debt for what you have done to bring about an atmosphere in which good men may once again trust one another.

Please give me a ring (543-2239) and let me know if you will again be able to be with us on Sunday, the 7th of March.

Most cordially,

F. P. Jones, Col., USA (Ret.), Director
National Security and Foreign Affairs

Dear George:

O

While all of us shall certainly miss meeting with you on Sunday, the 7th of March, I fully understand, and am most happy to hear that you will appear on "Issues and Answers" on behalf of the Agency.

You did a great job on the Mike Wallace "60 Minutes" program, and I am certain you will move the Agency forward in our nation's esteem by appearing on "Issues and Answers."

P

As you are otherwise engaged on Sunday, the 7th of March, I am once again calling on your stalwart deputy, Dick Walters, to meet with our group in tandem with Dave Phillips, who, as you know, has been most eloquent as the head of the Association of Retired Intelligence Officers.

My best wishes to you personally, and I hope you and Barbara can see more of one another than passing notes left on the hall table.

Most cordially,

F. P. Jones, Col., USA (Ret.), Director
National Security and Foreign Affairs

Marie gave me these last week and I am returning them to your files. Mr. Nelson kept the speeches that Marie gave me and she said she did not need them.
